Chaos at Chamundeshwari
JD(S) meeting in city

District Minister G.T. Devegowda placating an agitated party worker at the Chamundeshwari JD(S) meeting held in city this morning.

- Party workers say they will not canvass for coalition candidate in Mysuru-Kodagu
- GTD tries to placate agitated party workers and requests to follow 'coalition dharma'

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RK&BCT)- A day after JD(S) leader and District Minister G.T. Devegowda (GTD) and former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah let bygones be bygones and broke the ice by holding talks to strategise for the Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha polls, GTD held a meeting with members of Zilla Panchayat, Taluk Panchayat, Gram Panchayat and ground-level JD(S) workers from Chamundeshwari Assembly segment at a private hotel in city this morning that was marked by confusion and chaos.

Congress candidate C.H. Vijayashankar is contesting as an alliance candidate in Siddharamaiah's home district. The former CM was handed a crushing defeat by Devegowda in Chamundeshwari in Mysuru in the Assembly elections in May 2018. Since then, the two leaders were not on talking terms.

The leaders came face-to-face yesterday in Bengaluru and shook hands to forget the past after former PM H.D. Deve Gowda stated that neither the JD(S) nor its candidate defeated Siddharamaiah in the Assembly polls. During the meeting, both leaders decided to set aside differences and forget the bitterly fought Assembly elections in the larger interest of keeping the BJP returning to power.

At today's meeting at a private hotel in Mysuru, most of the JD(S) party workers and leaders expressed their reservation about supporting Congress candidates. The meeting was chaired by GTD. JD(S) State President A.H. Vishwanath, Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh, MLC Marithibbegowda, KEA Chairman Abdul Azeez and others were present.

JD(S) will not be accountable if coalition candidate loses: GTD

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RK&BCT)- After the JD(S) party workers meeting at a private hotel in city this morning, Mysuru District Minister G.T. Devegowda (GTD) reportedly said that JD(S) leaders will not be held responsible if coalition candidate C.H. Vijayashankar loses the election. He, however, denied the statement later and said that his words have been misconstrued.

When a reporter asked GTD if his party, the JD(S), would take the blame if Vijayashankar is defeated, GTD reportedly quipped, "Neither me nor Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh will be responsible if such a thing happens. Did Siddharamaiah claim responsibility when A.H. Vishwanath (present JD(S) President) lost the MP election in 2014," he asked.

However, later clarifying his stand, GTD said that his remarks were misinterpreted. "I did not say this to spite anyone. I only said that all depends on the voters who will choose their leader. The question of owning responsibility for electoral loss does not arise here. All this would not have arisen if we had fought the election separately," he said.

Encore of 'Wolf, Wolf' fable

The expression Let noble thoughts come to us from all directions, drawn from Rig Veda and often quoted by scholars, juxtaposed to the matter that one gets to read in dailies portraying the goings on in the country nowadays prompts one to cite the line from Shakespeare's play Julius Caesar that Marc Antony uttered at the funeral of Caesar namely, "O, what a fall was there, may countrymen!" Noble thoughts may be coming to us from some directions, with not more than a minuscule number of the literati taking note, but the media helplessly printing in dailies of all hues reports of various misdeeds by different sections of the land's masses which area read as routine, takes us back to Antony's lament on the fall of our country from the high pedestal of Vedic era to the dismal depths that we find ourselves in. The air turned turbid with the awkward word corruption on everybody's lips for quite a while before it passed off as nothing unusual. Then came pollution, the killer factor that is claiming lives in rising numbers. We are currently lost in the dense ambience of plastic, once considered as a gift of scientists, now-turned-into a garbage heap that one cannot wish away. The debris has acquired dimensions that have made the demons looks like pygmies.

Mysureans are in the august company of their counterparts in the country's more than 4,000 cities and towns generating the messy mass of decaying matter in mountainous proportions playing host to mosquitoes and houseflies. Their romance with plastic products has got cemented to levels that mocks at the inter-gender romance of the youth.

Following government's well-intended measure of banning production, distribution and use of plastic products of certain kinds has created a situation of solution-worse-than-problem in Mumbai. Officials have meticulously implemented the government diktat resulting in 51,000 tonnes of plastic debris. The urban local body of the metropolis, not only not finding proper place to keep the mass but is also not getting any party to respond to its tender for disposal. Japan is currently generating more than nine million tonnes of plastic residue annually and is conveniently tossing the offending stuff into the waters of Pacific Ocean which is washed ashore killing marine fauna. Fouling the water bodies and polluting the rivers across India are only talked about even as the official machinery is overwhelmed by the daunting task of making the waters fit for human consumption.

Thanks to the cacophony of campaigning by the vote-seekers, aam janata is seemingly taking a short holiday from reverting to raising the issues of corruption, pollution and plastic menace. Once the air gets dense with their wailing, one is prompted to recall the fable of shepherd crying wolf! wolf!! even as the issues go out of hand for all time ahead.

Lemon juice, hygiene and Mumbai: Last week, a video surfaced, showing lemon juice being prepared in unhygienic conditions at a food stall in a suburban Railway Station. Central Railway officials promptly banned the sale of juices. Was the action correct? It might not have been. Some years ago, BMC issued ads warning citizens against drinking sugarcane juice from street vendors, saying it contained E. coli bacteria. A lawyer collected milk shake samples from hotels. Tests showed they had a much higher level of contamination. — In The New Indian Express.

Twins ordered to pay child support to same child

São Paulo: A Judge at a Brazilian Court has ordered a pair of male identical twins to pay child support to a child whose paternity could not be determined after they both refused to assume responsibility and a DNA test proved inconclusive because of their genetic similarity.

Valeria, the mother of the child, originally filed a lawsuit for recognition of paternity against just one of the two twins, Fernando, with whom she believes she had a short romantic relationship with. He underwent a DNA test which showed that there was a 99.9% probability that he was the father of the child. However, after seeing the result, Fernando continued to deny that he had fathered the girl, claiming instead that it had been his identical twin brother, Fabricio. The man's twin was also ordered to take the DNA test, which yielded the same result as Fernando's, because the two have virtually the same genetic code. Left with no option, the judge ordered both of them to pay child support to the same child.

Woman suffers brain damage after going on liquid diet

Tel Aviv: A woman, who went on liquid diet for three weeks was recently admitted to a Medical Center in Tel Aviv with a possible irreversible brain damage.

The unidentified woman in her early 40s and weighing less than 40 kg and was in bad physical shape due to the her liquid diet, after she followed the advice of an unlicensed alternative therapist. It is believed that she is suffering from hyponatraemia, aka 'water intoxication' caused by low levels of sodium in the blood.

According to reports, doctors fear that the prolonged malnutrition and excessive liquid intake may have cause the woman permanent brain damage, but they will only know for sure when her condition becomes stable.

Winners of ESCAPADE

The 'Best Herculean' title winners — Mohammed Salman and U.K. Skandan; 'Best Strategist' winners — Hritick Jain and Akhil Kataria.

Mysuru, Apr.5- New ways of thinking and problem-solving skills go a long way in shaping one's career and life. Realising the need for the same, CRESTA School of Management designed and hosted an event called 'ESCAPADE,' wherein many colleges from Mysuru took part to bring out new skills of its students.

Twenty teams with five members each were sent to the sprawling 16-acre Wild Acres Resort where they underwent several games and activities to test and improve their life skills.

In this two-day event spanning a continuous and laborious 36 hours, students were not allowed to sleep or drink even water.

At the end of the event, the ESCAPADE jury selected Jain set (Hritick Jain and Akhil Kataria) as 'Best Strategist,' while Mohammed Salman and U.K. Skandan from NPS won the 'Best Herculean' title and M.D. Varun from School of Planning and Architecture won the Trader category.

Deve Gowda sees conspiracy to defeat Nikhil Kumaraswamy

K.R. Pet, Apr.5 - Days after the top brass of the coalition partners, JD(S) and Congress, chanted unity mantra loudly in the State Capital, JD(S) supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda has said that some of the leaders of the grand-old-party have gone 'too far' with their agenda to defeat his grandson Nikhil Kumaraswamy in Mandya Lok Sabha seat.

Addressing a poll rally at K.R. Pet yesterday, Deve Gowda maintained that some leaders have conspired to defeat Nikhil to damage the reputation of Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy. A visit by former CM Siddharamaiah to Mandya would not be of any benefit, he added.

Stating that Congress leaders should have shown greater interest in campaigning, he appealed to the youths not to be swayed by glamour and look at who actually worked for their welfare.

Deve Gowda struck an emotional chord, when he said that the fate of Nikhil rests with the voters of Mandya. The JD(S) supremo later addressed a rally at Srirangapatna, where he appealed to the voters to vote for coalition candidate Nikhil Kumaraswamy. Srirangapatna JD(S) MLA Ravindra Srikantaiah and other leaders were present.

I-T raids at KRS Hotel where CM, son Nikhil stayed

Nikhil

Mandya, Apr. 5 (Nagaiah &BCT)- Income Tax (I-T) officials continued their raids to detect unaccounted cash and cases of tax evasion. After raiding several contractors and officials a few days ago, the I-T officials targeted Hotel Royal Orchid at KRS in Srirangapatna taluk yesterday afternoon.

CM Kumaraswamy often checks into the hotel during his visits to Mandya district where his son Nikhil is contesting the LS elections. Even Nikhil stays in this hotel and has been conducting meetings of JD(S) legislators and party workers there.

Yesterday at around 2 pm, more than 20 I-T officials raided the hotel and the sleuths seized CCTV footage of Kumaraswamy and Nikhil. The rooms, where they had stayed were also inspected. The officials have been staying in Mandya for over a month and are monitoring the movement of Congress and JD(S) leaders.

Elsewhere in Mandya, I-T sleuths raided farmhouses of K.R. Pet Congress leader K.B. Chandrashekar's nephew and former Town Municipal Council member K.T. Chakrapani at Kuppalli village last evening. Chakrapani was working in favour of Independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish.

CM's car stopped at election check post: On Apr. 3, Chief Minister HDK's black SUV was stopped at a check post at Hirasave near Channarayapatna. The CM was in the front seat, resting his head on his palm and waited as two men (election officers) searched the boot.

The CM was on his way to Bengaluru via Hirasave from Shivamogga where he had gone to canvass for JD(S) candidate Madhu Bangarappa. Election officials on duty intercepted the car in which Kumaraswamy was travelling on National Highway 75. The escort vehicles of his convoy were also intercepted and inspected.

Chief Minister Kumaraswamy told the officials "Check the vehicles properly. Take pictures and video and send it to the higher officials of the Election Commission."

Chopper 'conspiracy': HDK says he is forced to travel by Road

At Channarayapatna, the CM told reporters that he was finding it difficult to get choppers for his election campaigns and he is forced to go by road to address rallies. Smelling a "conspiracy" behind this, Kumaraswamy alleged that the Centre is "misusing its power" to restrict him from campaigning by making helicopters non-available.

Sources said that under normal circumstances, two agents used to arrange choppers for the CM. "From the last one week, the agents are expressing their inability to arrange choppers. They are attributing this to non-availability as leaders from other parties and from various parts of the country have booked earlier," said a source.

Even the Election Commission has issued stringent guidelines on the use of choppers during the poll season. The EC stipulated that expenses of using aircraft must be paid by the parties with suitable accounting.

Mandya villages haven't seen development due to political animosity: Sumalatha

JD(S) State President A.H. Vishwanath greeting Mandya LS independent candidate Sumalatha with a bouquet at an interaction in Bengaluru.

Bengaluru, Apr.5(KMS&DM)- Maintaining that if elected as an MP she would prioritise development of Mandya villages which are neglected due to political animosity, independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish, wife of late actor-turned-politician Ambarish, has said that she is in Mandya to fulfil the dreams of her late husband.

Speaking at an interaction meet jointly organised by Bengaluru Reporters Guild and Press Club here on Thursday, Sumalatha said she could not tour Mandya when her husband Ambarish was alive. But now as she is touring the entire Mandya LS constituency, she is coming across many villages which are woefully lacking in basic amenities.

Stating that political animosity was the main reason for the backwardness of theses villages, she said that Ambarish would have become the Chief Minister of the State had he gone about on his political career in a more organised manner.

Claiming that she is contesting the polls after jumping into politics without much preparations, Sumalatha said Congress workers were voluntarily coming forward to support her and she cannot say NO to them.

Stating that the Congress did not consult the workers before entering into a poll pact with the JD(S), she said that Congress workers were in no mood to support the JD(S) candidate in Mandya.

Pointing out that initially she was in a dilemma whether she had taken the right decision to plunge into politics, Sumalatha said that as she went campaigning, she felt that her decision was right.

Asserting that she would work honestly for the welfare of the people, Sumalatha said that she was feeling the pressure while contesting as an independent candidate. But she was confident of victory in the polls as she was getting tremendous response from the people, she said.

Caste remark

JD(S) to initiate action against L.R. Shivaramegowda

Shivaramegowda

Bengaluru, Apr. 5- Disciplinary action will be initiated against Mandya MP L.R. Shivaramegowda for his casteist remarks against Sumalatha Ambarish, said JD(S) State President A.H. Vishwanath. Speaking at a media interaction yesterday, he said criticising Sumalatha only for political reasons was not fair and was against the interests of democracy.

"Shivaramegowda has spoilt the image of Mandya. There are members of all communities in Mandya. He is an MP and shouldn't make such remarks. The party has taken his remarks seriously and will initiate disciplinary action against him," he said.

Shivaramegowda had targeted Sumalatha's caste while addressing an election rally in Mandya recently, alleging that she was out to 'Naidu-ise' Mandya, referring to her Balija Naidu caste. Shivaramegowda had said, "Sumalatha is not a Mandya Gowdathi, but belongs to Naidu community. Rockline Venkatesh, Darshan is also Naidu and trying to conquer Mandya."

This statement had prompted the Karnataka Balija Sangha to file a complaint with the Election Commission.

On dynasty politics

Dynasty and family rule is non-issue in these elections, Vishwanath said. The former Minister said that family rule has become norm just not in India but across the world, including in developed countries.

"All regional parties have been controlled by the families whether it is SP in Uttar Pradesh, BJD in Odisha, TRS in Telangana, DMK in Tamil Nadu, Shiva Sena in Maharashtra to name a few," he said and asked, "Why single out Deve Gowda and members of his family?"

FIR against Mandya MP

Meanwhile, Nagamangala Police have registered an FIR against Shivaramegowda for his statements questioning the caste of Mandya Lok Sabha Independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish, film producer Rockline Venkatesh and actor Darshan.

Based on the complaint lodged by Congress District Unit Secretary Kabbalaiah to the Election Commission and directed by the Returning Officer, the Police filed an FIR against Shivaramegowda.

Sumalatha Ambarish contesting polls to serve people: Actor Yash

Sandalwood actors Yash and Darshan campaigning separately for Sumalatha yesterday. The duo will take a break for Ugadi and continue canvassing from Apr. 8.

Pandavapura, Apr.5- Sandalwood actor Yash, who is on a campaign trail, yesterday appealed to the voters to elect independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish to the Parliament.

Speaking after conducting road shows in an open jeep in various villages, he termed this election as a prestige issue and self-respect of the people of Mandya. "Sumalatha wishes to serve the people and hence is contesting the polls," he said.

Accusing her political opponents for fielding three more 'Sumalathas' in this election to confuse the voters, he asked the villagers to vote for serial number 20 independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish whose election symbol is 'Farmer blowing trumpet'.

Yash conducted road shows at Haralahalli, Vishweshwaranagar, Hiremarali, Mahadeshwara, Lakshmisagar, Sunkathonnur, Halebeedu, Hosakote, Bellale, Kanagonahalli, Balaghatta and Jakkanahalli villages.

Block Congress former President L.C. Manjunath, BJP leader H.N. Manjunath, former MLA K. Kempegowda's son Manjunath, Dhananjay, Farmer leader Vijaykumar and others were present.

Sumalatha must win to save self-respect of Mandya: Actor Darshan

Challenging Star Darshan called upon people of the constituency to elect independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish with a huge margin of votes to save the self-respect of the people of Mandya.

Making an emotional appeal after conducting road shows at various villages of Nagamangala segment including Cheenya and Honakere yesterday, he wanted the people of the constituency to give a chance to Sumalatha.

Earlier, villagers of Cheenya of Honakere hobli gave a rousing welcome to Darshan when he entered their village at 11 am and chanted slogans 'D. Boss.' They brought their beloved actor on a bullock cart after taking out a procession from Srirangapatna - Jewargi State Highway to Cheenya Circle and showered flower petals on the actor.

Interestingly, various Congress leaders and workers took part in the campaign along with BJP workers defying the diktat of their high command leaders. They waved Congress and BJP flags during the campaign.

While canvassing, Darshan and supporters enjoyed 'curd rice', 'puliyogare', 'panaka' and 'majjige'.

Traffic came to grinding halt for some time in the evening on Bengaluru-Mangaluru NH near Kadabahalli when Darshan and supporters arrived to the spot.

Darshan's car stoned?

Rumours of miscreants pelting stones on Darshan's car were reported from Anchechittanahalli in Nagamangala taluk. But they vanished in the dark after throwing stones. However, Police sources denied any such incident took place.

VOICE OF THE READER

To Vote or Not To Vote

Sir,

This has reference to TJS George's article, 'We need to get our India back' (Star of Mysore dated Apr. 2). Here is a piece of information very disturbing (though very true) in his article that there are 1,580 (alleged) criminals sitting in the seats of power, in States and at Centre. Well, the elections to Lok Sabha are round the corner and George's concern is very relevant. Weigh the VOTE or count the VOTE? But you must VOTE. With such characters contending, good stewardship is a mirage. BUT YOU MUST VOTE, because it is your sacred duty towards the nation.

Today's political scenario can at best be described not as 'Democracy' but 'Kakistocracy' (a word coined in 17th century) which means a system of Government run by the worst, least qualified or most unscrupulous people. Or can we call it 'Kleptocracy' meaning rule by thieves. Yes but YOU MUST VOTE !

Is there a hope now or in near future of a rare kind of metamorphosis in the situation through election? We can't lose hope.

The Joy & Magic of Roadside Medicine!

Almost all over our country and even in our own city you can see some itinerant families who practice traditional medicine on the roadside. All of them invariably ply their trade from a dilapidated van that has changed many hands and has certainly seen better days in better hands before landing up with them. I cannot help feeling that since it spends the last lap of its life in the hands of 'doctors' its fate can be said to be very similar to the fate of people who as patients spend their last days in the care and company of their doctors!

This ramshackle van is parked conveniently under a large roadside tree which provides its owners much needed shade all day long. By day their van serves as their dispensary and repository of drugs which are displayed on the shelves inside while its road-facing side which is enclosed by a cubicle becomes their consulting room. The vinyl walls of their consulting room proclaim both the long lineage and experience of the family in the field of native medicine and also the list of diseases they can effectively cure. It is a different matter that to a qualified doctor like me who practices only the so- called modern medicine, this list seems very amazing as it lists all the diseases for which modern medicine has not yet found a permanent cure!

After they shut shop the consulting room becomes their kitchen-cum-dining room and their van becomes their tiny bedroom. They may thus have the tiniest of homes but we can safely say that their home has the biggest bathroom-cum-toilet because it extends all over the countryside !

Their day begins quite early as they have to finish their ablutions in privacy before the world around them wakes up and their ladies have to cook for the day before they too start serving their patients. Yes, like in the field of modern medicine they too have lady doctors who see lady patients and this information is included in bold letters on the walls of their clinics. However, as the notice is silent on this matter, I'm not too sure if the men too who go there can opt for treatment by lady doctors!

As traffic picks up on the road and as footfalls increase on the pavement they place a loudspeaker next to their van which starts proclaiming how effective their traditional medicine is in curing some of the most chronic and difficult to cure diseases that afflict mankind. They announce that their healing is done through the power of herbs which are painstakingly gathered from the inaccessible nooks and corners of the Himalayas which were once the abode of our saints and sages.

How far this is true is something I cannot comment on but as a practitioner of modern medicine I certainly envy the complete freedom that these native healers enjoy in pursuing their livelihood in an era where all doctors who practice modern medicine are practically bound in chains! Yes, that is the state of medical practice in our country today. Only after I became a doctor I realised to my dismay that when the great philosopher, Rousseau said that 'Man is born free but everywhere he is in chains' he was speaking about modern day doctors!

One has to be among the topmost few of one's classmates to even dream of becoming a doctor or one has to have filthy rich and very indulgent parents who think nothing of parting with their life's savings to get their children past the minimum post-graduate qualifications that can make them decently qualified doctors in a society that has sadly consigned the adequately qualified family doctor to the dust bin of history. Becoming a doctor and acquiring a post-graduate degree is itself a very arduous task today. But your troubles do not end there. In fact that is where they begin!

You have to register at the State Medical Council which is the body that is supposed to examine your certificates and then certify that you are a qualified doctor. Only then can you summon the courage to buy yourself a pen with which you can write your first prescription! But, don't be too ecstatic yet. If you are planning to start your own private practice or hospital you have to approach another portal of power under the Private Medical Establishments Act to convince the Government that your livelihood as a doctor is not going to violate its rules or pollute the environment in any way. The former you do by informing it that you have clearance from the Medical Council to practice medicine and the latter you do by showing that you have clearance from the State Pollution Control Board that the bio-medical waste that your practice generates will be disposed off safely as prescribed.

It is a different matter that this waste that is collected by a licensed bio-medical waste disposal agency is in turn sold to an unlicensed rag-picker who makes a living out of it by day while only dreaming by night of doing what his film hero does in the rags to riches blockbuster that he has just seen! Otherwise how do you explain the sale of decorative lamps and flower vases made out of intravenous fluid bottles and catapults made out of used rubber catheters that may still be having loads and loads of urinary pathogens?

Yes, if someone from the Government is willing to accompany me on a short 'Discovery Walk' I'm willing to show them where to buy these and some even more deadly things! Considering that catapults are among the most favourite toys that any boy would love to have, imagine what harm we may be doing to the children who buy them from street corner shops and hang them around their necks all day long with glee.

Qualified doctors in our country can only prescribe drugs which have gone through years of extensive trials and are certified as safe for human use. But persons who practice medicine on the roadside can pluck anything that grows on the roadside and peddle it as medicine without anyone asking whether it can cure or kill! How wonderful it is to be a wayside doctor in our great country!

Mera Bharath is really Mahan!

Voter awareness programme held at JSS Medical College

Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner Shilpa Nag administering oath to students of JSS Medical College.

Mysuru, Apr.5- Voter awareness programme, organised by Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) in association with district-level Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) Committee was held at JSS Medical College in Bannimantap yesterday.

Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner Shilpa Nag, administered oath to the students. "Everybody should vote to strengthen the democracy as voting is a sacred right. Our country has the highest number of youth in the world. Good governance and politics is necessary to get fundamental infrastructure for higher studies and to take the country towards development. In this regard, the City Corporation has organised awareness programmes on electoral rights at different areas of the city," she said.

The MCC Commissioner said that everybody should vote without giving any excuses and the development of the country depends on the candidate we elect. "Candidate's education, the style of working and the service rendered to the society are the factors which has to be considered while casting vote," she said.

Speaking on the occasion, JSS Mahavidyapeetha Executive Secretary Dr. C.G. Betsurmath said that voting rights given to all citizens are the most important element of the Constitution and added that creating awareness among the students and the public is necessary. Everybody should vote and join hands to strengthen the development of the country, he said.

MCC Assistant Commissioner Sivananda Murthy, Zonal Officer Priyadarshini, Development Officer Nalini, Corporation Officer Suma Kumari, College Principal Dr. Basavanagowdappa, Director-Academics Dr. P.A. Kushalappa, Satish Chandra, Puttaraju, Dr. Pramod, Dr. Ravish, Dr. Ravindra and others were present.

Hassan SP transferred

Prakash Gowda

Hassan, Apr.5- Days after Hassan DC Akram Pasha was transferred under directions from the Election Commission of India (ECI), the State Government on Thursday transferred Hassan SP A.N. Prakash Gowda, also on the directions of the ECI.

IPS Officer Chetan Singh Rathore has been appointed as Hassan SP in place of Prakash Gowda, who has not been given new posting right now.

Chetan Singh Rathore was serving as FSL Director at Bengaluru. The BJP had sought the ECI to transfer Prakash Gowda in connection with an incident that took place in Hassan district during last year's Assembly polls, it is learnt.

Use of plastic in preparing, packing food items banned

Mysuru, Apr.5 (KS)- The office of the Designated Officer, Mysuru Food Safety and Standard Act, Mysuru City Corporation Area, has banned the use of plastic in any form and also printed papers by roadside food vendors which preparing and packing food items.

If anyone found using the banned materials, stern action would be initiated against them under Food Safety and Standards Authority (FSSA) Act. The roadside food vendors are instructed to keep the surroundings of their business place clean and free from pollution and use quality raw materials, clean water and not to use banned colours and chemicals. Instructions are also given to dispose waste in a proper way.

Spot fine/ jail term and other FSSA rules would be initiated if the above instructions are not followed, according to a press release.

'Jayadeva Heart Hospital on par with any hospital in US, Europe'

Health & Family Welfare Services Principal Secretary Jawaid Akhtar (second from right), who inspected Sri Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research on KRS Road, Mysuru, seen interacting with Institute Director Dr. C.N. Manjunath as Finance Department Deputy Secretary Purushotham Singh, Hospital Chief Dr. K.S. Sadanand and others look on.

Mysuru, Apr.5 (MTY&NNN)- The newly-built Sri Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research on KRS Road here matches the international standards of any hospital in America or Europe and it is going to be one of the model hospitals in the country, lauded Jawaid Akhtar, Principal Secretary to Government of Karnataka, Health & Family Welfare Services.

He was speaking after visiting the hospital and inspecting it here on Wednesday and said that the hospital which is like a five-star hotel but providing quality treatment to the poorest of the poor is truly laudable. This is the pride of Karnataka and all credit should go to the Director of the Institute Dr. C.N. Manjunath, who has been responsible for giving this hospital an international recognition. This hospital is operating without shortage of any expert. With the motto 'First treatment then payment,' the poor who come without money in their pocket will be benefited, he said.

On the occasion, Dr. C.N. Manjunath, Finance Department Deputy Secretary Purushotham Singh, Engineers Muni Narayanswamy, Nagendra Prasad, Hospital Chief Dr. K.S. Sadanand, Resident Medical Officer (RMO) Dr. Panduranga, Dr. Harsha Basappa, Dr. Hema Ravish, Dr. Rajith, Dr. Veena Nanjappa, Dr. Ramachandra, District Health Officer Dr. Venkatesh, Mysore Medical College and Research Institute Dean and Director Dr. C.P. Nanjaraj, Nursing Superintendent Harish, Public Relations Officer Vani Mohan, Champakamala and others were present.

Private sector staff to get more pension after SC ruling

New Delhi, Apr. 5 (UNI)- The Supreme Court has given a major relief to private sector employees by dismissing EPFO's plea against the High Court ruling that had asked the organisation to pay full pension to retiring employees on the basis of their total salary.

The Special Leave Petition was filed against a Kerala HC order that asked Employees Provident Fund Organisation (EPFO) to provide pension to all retiring employees, rather than capping the figure at Rs. 15,000 per month. After this decision, all employees will get a pension on their full salary instead of the Rs. 15,000 cap after retirement.

The decision was taken by a bench comprising CJI Ranjan Gogoi, Justice Deepak Gupta and Justice Sanjiv Khanna on Apr. 1. The court statement read: "We find no merit in the special leave petition. The same is, accordingly dismissed." After this decision, the pension will increase but the PF corpus will be reduced as more contribution will go to Employees' Pension Scheme (EPS) and not Provident Fund.

The EPS was introduced by the Government in 1995 for the organised sector employees. The scheme applies on all employees under the EPF scheme and people who are covered under EPS receive a pension on a permanent basis. Every employee with a monthly salary combined with DA of Rs. 15,000 or lesser must enrol in this scheme.

As part of the scheme, the employer was supposed to contribute 8.33% of their employee's salary. This contribution was then capped at 8.33% of Rs. 6,500. Later the Government amended the Act and allowed a contribution to any percentage of the actual salary in case both employee and employer has no objection.

The Act was amended again in 2014 and the contribution was increased to 8.33% of a maximum amount of Rs. 15,000. The amendment added that the pension on full salary will be calculated as average of last five years' monthly income and not just on past one year's salary. This amendment, therefore, lowered the pension of many employees.

In 2014, the Karnataka HC set aside the 2014 amendment and reinstated the old pension calculation procedure.

Jagjivan Ram remembered

Marking the 112th birth anniversary of former Dy. Prime Minister Babu Jagjivan Ram, City Police Commissioner K.T. Balakrishna, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, Zilla Panchayat CEO K. Jyothi and Registrar of University of Mysore Prof. Lingaraja Gandhi offering floral tributes to Babuji's statue at City Railway Station Circle this morning.

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RKB&DM)- Garlanding of Babu Jagjivan Ram's statue at city Railway Station Circle marked the 112th birth anniversary of former Deputy PM Babu Jagjivan Ram organised jointly by District Administration, ZP, MCC and Social Welfare Department in city this morning.

The Karnataka Police Band paid tributes to the late Dalit leader by offering 'General Salute'. The Band, led by Manjunath also played English music as a mark of respect.

DC Abhiram G. Sankar, ZP CEO K. Jyothi, MCC Commissioner Shilpa Nag, Registrar of University of Mysore Prof. Lingaraja Gandhi and former Mayor Purushottam were present.

SVEEP Committee holds Jatha

Mysuru, Apr.5 (RKB&DM)- Continuing its non-stop campaign for enhancing poll percentage, the Mysuru district SVEEP Committee, in association with Zilla Panchayat and Apollo BGS Hospital, took out a rally (Jatha) in city this morning.

The rally was held under the theme "your vote is as precious as your health". Hundreds of nursing students and BGS Apollo Hospital staff marched in the rally that commenced from BGS Apollo Hospital premises on Adichunchanagiri Road, Kuvempunagar.

The rally flagged off by ZP CEO K. Jyothi, passed through Cauvery School, A to Z Circle, Vijay Bank Circle and other main thoroughfares before culminating at the starting point.

Speaking on the occasion K. Jyothi said that it was everyone's right and duty to exercise their franchise in a democracy.

Stressing on the importance of voting, she said that the SVEEP committee has been conducting regular programmes on creating voter awareness since Jan.25 when the National Voters Day was celebrated and added that the Committee would continue to hold such programmes to ensure maximum polling.

Marking the occasion, BGS Apollo Hospital announced a 20 percent discount on Health check up from Apr.18 to till Apr.30, to only those whose cast their votes and display their inked finger.

Apollo BGS Hospital Vice-President Bharateesh Reddy , Medical Superintendent Dr. Anjali Arun, Cardiologist Dr. Arun Srinivas and others were present.

In another event, the SVEEP Committee in association with ZP, MCC and JSS Science and Technology University (JSS-STU), held an event in SJCE premises in Manasagangothri this morning in which over 2,000 students and staff were administered a oath on voting.

ZP CEO K. Jyothi, JSS Mahavidyapeetha Executive Secretary Dr.C.G. Betsurmath, JSS-STU VC Dr. B.G. Sangameshwara, Registrar Prof. K.S. Lokesh, SJCE Principal Dr.T.N.Nagabushan, MCC Commissioner Shilpa Nag and other officials were present.

Modi, HDD, Siddu

to canvass in city on Apr.9

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (MTY&SR)- It will be a campaign of titans on Apr.9 as Prime Minister Narendra Modi, JD(S) National President H.D. Deve Gowda and Congress Legislature Party Leader Siddharamaiah are visiting the city on that day to campaign for their party candidates.

Modi's visit scheduled on Apr.8 was postponed suddenly to Apr.9 as PM is likely to release his party manifesto in New Delhi on Apr.8.

Former Deputy CM and State BJP leader R. Ashoka, who is overseeing the preparations of Modi's tour programme in the State, said that Modi will first visit Chitradurga on Apr.9 at 2.15 pm. Later, he will land in Mysuru at 4 pm to address a rally in city seeking votes for party candidates in Mysuru, Chamarajanagar, Mandya and Hassan.

Sources in the Congress told Star of Mysore that former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda and former CM Siddharamaiah will conduct joint campaign in city seeking votes for coalition candidate C.H. Vijayashankar. The visit of VVIPs is likely to force the Police to make elaborate security arrangements.

Addressing a media conference at a private hotel in city this morning, Ashoka termed the pact between Congress and JD(S) fielding candidates in this Lok Sabha polls as a blessing in disguise for BJP to expand its base across the State.

He said many constituencies are witnessing straight fight between BJP and coalition candidates. Upset over the pre-poll pact between Congress and JD(S), some disgruntled party workers have been openly supporting BJP candidates. It is evident that Congress workers are supporting BJP-backed independent candidate Sumalatha Ambarish in Mandya.

Similarly, JD(S) activists are supporting many BJP candidates. Hence, BJP is sure to gain maximum seats, he added.

The Congress and JD(S) had entered the pact with sole intention of defeating Modi. However, Modi will come to power again as there a 'Modi Wave' across the nation, he said. He said Mysuru-Kodagu candidate Pratap Simha will get elected with a huge margin of votes. Party candidate Pratap Simha, MLAs S.A. Ramdas and L. Nagendra, BJP leaders M. Rajendra, Vamanacharya, Sandesh Swamy, Dr B.H. Manjunath and Kote M. Shivanna were present.

Chaos at JD(S) meeting

Before the meeting, the leaders huddled together for breakfast and discussed ways and means to convince the party workers. The leaders entered the meeting hall at around 11.25 am and initially, Vishwanath addressed the gathering and said that JD(S) activists must support and work for the victory of coalition candidate Vijayashankar.

Minister S.R. Mahesh and Marithibbegowda also addressed the party workers even as the crowd raised their objections and shouted slogans. Chaos began as soon as Mahesh and Marithibbegowda were addressing the gathering. Some of the JD(S) workers alleged in raised voice that during the Assembly elections false cases were foisted against them for supporting GTD.

One of the workers said, "Siddharamaiah was the CM then and as we supported GTD, many false cases were lodged against us and our vehicles were seized. We were forced to run around Police Stations and Courts. In such a situation, how can we support Congress candidate."

He was joined by many other local leaders who echoed similar sentiments and said that the Congress was unfair to them and their families and Siddharamaiah practiced 'revenge politics' and had unnecessarily created troubles for JD(S) workers.

Intervening in the melee, GTD said that every JD(S) worker in Chamundeshwari has experienced difficulties during the Assembly polls. "Due to coalition compulsions now, we have to campaign for coalition candidate. Even CM H.D. Kumaraswamy has sacrificed a lot and is running the government and it is our duty to save the State government," he said.

GTD further said that on Apr. 7, both Congress and JD(S) leaders will hold a joint press conference in Mysuru to dispel any doubts in supporting the coalition candidate. "Before that I will hold a meeting with you again and will appeal to support Vijayashankar," he said.

Prices of flowers, fruits skyrocket on Ugadi eve

Heavy festival rush at Devaraja Market

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RKB&NNN)- There was heavy rush at the more than a hundred-year-old Devaraja Market with hardly any moving space with people falling over one another to make purchases of fresh fruits, flowers and vegetables for the Ugadi festival tomorrow (Apr.6).

This is that time of the year with Chandramana Ugadi ushering in the new year according to Hindu alamanac (Panchanga). Life is a mixture of happiness and sadness and this is what the spirit of Ugadi is all about and hence people ring it in by eating a mixture of sweet and bitter items that is neem leaves and jaggery (bevu-bella).

Even though the prices of flowers and fruits have skyrocketed, people still are not perturbed and were seen buying them. For instance a length of Chrysanthemum (Sevanthige) that was being sold at Rs. 35 to Rs.40 is being sold at a whopping Rs. 100 and by evening it is likely to go up to Rs.120 a length.

Button rose sold at Rs.10 for 250 grams is now being sold at Rs. 40 to Rs. 50, while mixed colour rose is being sold at Rs. 60 for 250 gms. Kanakambra flowers sold in loose is being sold at a whopping Rs. 100 to Rs.125 for 250 gms. while Ooty Mallige is being sold at Rs. 250 to Rs. 400 a kg.

The fruits are also in equal demand with apples sold between Rs.140 to Rs.180 per kg, pomegranate at Rs. 80 to Rs.100 and green and black grapes being sold at Rs. 160 to Rs.180 per kg.

Elakki banana which used to cost Rs. 40 to Rs.50 a kg has now gone up to Rs. 70 to Rs. 90 while the famous Nanjangud Rasabale is sold anywhere between Rs.100 to Rs. 110 per kg.

The vegetables prices had already gone up with carrot being sold at Rs. 40 to Rs. 60 per kg. A small cucumber costs Rs.10 lemon is being sold between Rs. 5 and Rs. 8 each depending on the size.

Coconuts too have become costly and are sold at Rs. 25, Rs. 30 and Rs. 35 depending on the size.

Jaggery which is used in the preparation of obbattu (quite a popular dish during Ugadi) costs Rs. 10 for 100 gram to 150 gram.

A bunch of neem leaves and mango leaves which is a part of Ugadi festival or any other festival as it is used to tie on the doors is being sold at Rs.10 to Rs. 15 each for a bunch.

The rates in other markets like Mandi Market, Vani Vilas Market may vary a bit.

However, the flowers, neem and mango leaves sold on the roads like Dhanavanthri Road, Seshadri Iyer Road, Sayyaji Road where the farmers descend directly with their produce will cost less as one has the luxury of bargaining with them unlike in Devaraj Market where neither the sellers nor buyers do not have much time to bargain.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Kallumadanda Barath Mandanna, who sadly passed away on March 28, 2019, wish to thank all our family, friends and well-wishers for their support during our bereavement. We wish to especially thank the members of the Kuvempunagar Kodava Samaja and the Mysore Kodava Samaja for their invaluable help. The maada ceremony will be held on April 7, 2019.

BSP candidate's jumbo style campaign

BSP candidate Dr. B. Chandru resorting to a novel way of campaigning by fixing the elephant symbol of his party on a mini goods van.

Mysuru, Apr.5 (RK&NNN)- BSP candidate Dr. B. Chandra has chosen a novel way of campaigning for the Lok Sabha elections by putting up the Elephant symbol of his party on a mini goods van.

The BSP candidates have been canvassing in Mysuru and Chamarajanagar constituencies in this fashion from Wednesday. The Mysuru-based artists Harish Kumar and M. Nanjundaswamy of Ravivarma Chitrakala School have taken five days to design the van in a unique way.

Dr. B. Chandra

The six feet in height, 15 feet long and 5.5 feet wide black elephant has been attractively designed. The campaign vehicle will move around Mysuru and Chamarajanagar districts under the leadership of BSP District President Basavaraju canvassing for votes. This van will jog the memory of the people of the famous nursery rhyme 'Aane Banthond Aane.' The party's candidate Dr. Chandra and the party workers move in front of the van with folded hands seeking votes, said Basavaraju.

'Modi Govt. Yet Again' inevitable: Malavika Avinash

MLA L. Nagendra, BJP leader Malavika Avinash and the members of the BJP Mahila Morcha taking the oath 'Modi Government Yet Again' at a convention held in Govinda Rao Memorial Hall in city yesterday.

Mysuru, Apr.5-Prime Minister Narendra Modi Government has run a corruption-free administration in the last five years without a single black mark, unlike the previous UPA Government which was embroiled in various scams like the Coalgate and Helicopter scams turning the country into a den of corruption, said BJP leader and actor Malavika Avinash.

She was speaking after inaugurating 'BJP Women Workers' convention at Govinda Rao Memorial Hall at JLB Road Cross held under the leadership of BJP MLA L. Nagendra here yesterday and said due to the corruption-free Government the GDP rate has risen to 7.02 per cent. As a result ours is the fastest growing country in the world, she added.

Soon after the Pulwama attack where 44 CRPF jawans were martyred, the Modi Government swiftly acted and within 11 days sent the Air Force and attacked the terrorist camps in Pakistan and showed the strength of Indian Army, she said.

In the 2008 Nov. 26 terrorist attack in Mumbai nearly 200 people lost their lives but the UPA Government did not take any action and as a result the Pakistan-sponsored terrorist attacks increased. But by Modi giving importance to the nation's security, the country is safe and secure, she said.

> "Siddharamaiah keeps questioning frequently about what Narendra Modi has done to the country in the last five years. Hence, I have brought a report card. Mr. Siddharamaiah tell me your address. It is said that you are not found in Chamundeshwari. If we go to Badami you do not have a house there. If we come to Bengaluru then Siddharamaiah is no more the Chief Minister. Then how can we reach you the report card?
> — Malavika Avinash

The Prime Minister has taken special interest for women's security and with the Swachh Bharat campaign every house and school in the country is provided with toilets. Through Ujwala scheme free gas has been distributed to every household, thus alleviating the problems of rural women, she said.

MLA L. Nagendra, Arpita Pratap Simha, BJP Mahila Morcha's Chikkamma Basavaraju, leaders Radha Phaneesh, Corporators and others were present.

Silk route to attract more voter turnout at Chamarajanagar

Chamarajanagar, Apr.5- The definition of democracy means of the people, by the people and for the people that was uttered by the 16th President of United States Abraham Lincoln and hence in the context of the Indian elections where the voter is supreme it becomes the responsibility of every voter to cast his/her vote. In this background, the Chamarajanagar SVEEP (Systematic Voters Education and Electoral Participation) committee has been formed and through this voter awareness is being created.

In order to increase voter turn out the Election Commission has appointed celebrities as brand ambassadors in different constituencies and creating voter awareness. The District SVEEP Committee has decided to print four logos of the Election Commission on the silk sarees which is being done through Handloom and Textile Department.

The handloom weavers of Kollegal have weaved a logo each on four different sarees. The Election Commission of India launched a new vigilant citizen app also known as cVIGIL in the country and the voters can call helpline 1950 to report any violation of model code of conduct during polling including irregularities like distribution of money, sarees, cooker and other materials to entice the voters. The logos have been artistically designed on these sarees depicting these messages.

The people recognising the efforts of the weavers in creating awareness regarding the importance of voting must turn out in large numbers to vote, said Chamarajanagar Deputy Commissioner, Chief Executive Officer and Election Observer.

Flag politics in Mandya: KPCC warns of action

Nagamangala Taluk Congress vows to campaign for Sumalatha Ambarish

Nagamangala, Apr.5 - Even as the Congress high command has warned of disciplinary action against those Congress leaders and workers who campaign for actress Sumalatha Ambarish, who is contesting as an independent candidate from Mandya LS seat, the Nagamangala Block Congress has vowed to campaign for Sumalatha by holding Congress party flags.

Addressing a press meet here on Wednesday, Nagamangala Block Congress President H.T. Krishnegowda maintained that they would not follow the party's diktat on following coalition dharma.

Pointing out that the Congress' existence in Nagamangala was more important than following coalition dharma, he said that the party workers were supporting Sumalatha as a matter of self pride.

He asked the KPCC to understand the feelings of Congress leaders here. Claiming that Congress workers had supported JD(S) candidate L.R. Shivaramegowda in the bypolls for Mandya LS seat held in November last, he reiterated that there was no question of supporting JD(S) candidate Nikhil Kumaraswamy.

Accusing Shivaramegowda of ignoring Congress workers after his win, Krishnegowda lashed out at the JD(S) MP for making crass remarks against Sumalatha and also for raising caste issues in the run up to the polls.

He also expressed hope that Vokkaliga community will support Sumalatha in the LS polls.

KPCC President warns of action: Meanwhile, KPCC President Dinesh Gundu Rao has warned defiant Nagamangala Congress leaders of disciplinary action if they do not toe the party line and campaign for coalition candidate Nikhil Kumaraswamy.

Speaking to press persons at Bengaluru on Wednesday, Dinesh Gundu Rao said that party workers have to follow the instructions of AICC President Rahul Gandhi or otherwise the party will throw them out.

Warning the Congress workers against using the party flags during poll campaign for independent candidate Sumalatha, Dinesh said the party would complain to the Election Commission against waving party flags in the independent candidate's poll campaign.

Puttaraju says there will be no Cong. flags in Sumalatha's campaign: With the Congress high command warning its party workers against using party flags in Sumalatha's poll campaign, Mandya District Minister C.S. Puttaraju of the JD(S) has maintained that there would be no Congress flags in Sumalatha's campaign from now on.

Speaking to press persons at coalition candidate Nikhil Kumaraswamy's poll campaign at H. Malligere in Mandya taluk on Wednesday, he said that the JD(S) has already brought the issue to the notice of the Congress and the Congress high command has warned of disciplinary action.

Maintaining that the poll campaign in Mandya would involve all Congress leaders, Puttaraju said that the Congress was talking to its rebel leaders and issues would be sorted out soon. He further said that nothing was a closed chapter in politics.

Uttama Prajakeeya Paksha Founder Upendra calls on Yaduveer

Mysuru, Apr.5 (RKB&US)- "Uttama Prajakeeya Paksha would field candidates in all the 28 LS constituencies and the first list of the 14 candidates has been announced," disclosed Paksha Founder and actor Upendra.

Addressing a press meet at Pathrakartara Bhavan here on Tuesday, he reiterated that his party is not politically oriented but committed to people. He said that the party has no poll manifesto, which would be the thoughts and aspirations of the people.

He opined that points listed in the manifesto of any political party should be registered with a legal binding inviting action for non-fulfilment of assurances listed in the manifesto. He added that no film actor would campaign for the candidates of his party.

Upendra later campaigned for the party's LS candidate Asha Rani in city after offering puja at Chamundi Hill Temple. Earlier to that, Upendra visited Mysore Palace and met Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar.

BJP has not forced Sreenivasa Prasad to contest: MLA

Sreenivasa Prasad

Harshavardhan

Malkundi (Nanjangud taluk), Apr.5- Rubbishing Congress party's charge that veteran leader V. Sreenivasa Prasad was forced to contest by the BJP from Chamarajanagar LS seat, Nanjangud BJP MLA B. Harshavardhan, who is also the son-in-law of Prasad, said that Prasad has jumped into the fray as per the desire of party workers.

Addressing a poll rally at Malkundi in Nanjangud taluk on Wednesday, he maintained that the voters were in favour of Prasad.

Hitting back at MP and Congress candidate R. Dhruvanarayan for saying that the BJP forced Prasad to contest, the MLA claimed that the winds of change were blowing at Chamarajanagar and BJP's win was certain from the seat.

Stating that Prasad would become a Union Minister if elected, he appealed to the electorate to vote for Prasad as the BJP was certain to return to power under PM Modi's leadership. Harshavardhan also campaigned in several villages of the taluk.

MLA Ramdas turns Pourakarmika for Pratap Simha

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (MK&YDS)- In a novel way, MLA S.A. Ramdas, donning the uniform of a Pourakarmika, campaigned for Mysuru-Kodagu BJP LS candidate Pratap Simha in Devaraja Urs Colony recently by sweeping the area clean.

Ramdas hailed Narendra Modi as the only Prime Minister in the world who had washed the feet of a civic worker and appealed to the voters to vote for BJP.

Speaking further, the MLA said that Swachh Bharat Abhiyan had created a good awareness among people across India on cleanliness. He observed that Devaraja Urs Colony had seen a good level of development over the years and added that problems associated with Excel Waste Treatment Plant would be completely addressed in phases.

Corporators Shanthamma Vadivelu, Noor Fathima and others joined the MLA.

Bhoomi puja for Modi rally

Meanwhile, all eyes are set on the Maharaja's College Grounds where a bhoomi puja was performed to set up the stage for the mega BJP rally to be addressed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Apr.8 or 9. The BJP leaders performed the puja on Wednesday evening. Later, speaking, Ramdas said that Modi was visiting the State next week for election campaign. MLA L. Nagendra, BJP leaders H.V. Rajeev, Vamanacharya, B.P. Manjunath, Siddaraju, Phaneesh, Sandesh Swamy and others were present.

Illegal transportation of sand

Tipper driver arrested, sand seized

Mysuru, Apr.5 (SPN&KS)- K.R. Nagar Police have arrested the driver of a tipper who was transporting sand illegally and have seized about 25-30 loads of sand which he had illegally stocked.

The arrested is Sharath of Kanagalu village in Periyapatna taluk.

Sharath had lifted sand from Cauvery River and stocked the same in the field of one Prakash.

On Apr.2, Sharath had loaded the tipper (KA-12 B-0078) with sand and was transporting it when the Police raided and arrested him. A case has been registered at K.R. Nagar Police Station in this regard.

Re-electing Modi has become inevitable, says Suresh Kumar

BJP State Spokesperson and former Law Minister S. Suresh Kumar addressing the gathering during the interaction programme with advocates at Rajendra Kalamandira on Ramanuja Road here yesterday. Karnataka Bar Council member B.R. Chandramouli, Mysuru Bar Association President Anand Kumar, senior advocates P.D. Medappa and O. Sham Bhat were present.

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (SBD&BCT)- BJP State Spokesperson and MLA S. Suresh Kumar has said that changing the Constitution by a political party according to its whims and fancies is an impossible task and BJP will not even think about altering the Constitution. "False charges are being spread by people who were in power for decades and who are now feeling like fish out of water without power," he said.

He was speaking at an interaction organised by Lawyers' Forum of Karnataka at Rajendra Kalamandira on Ramanuja Road yesterday. "Hit-and-run statements have become rampant these days and the Congress has been falsely stating that the BJP would change the Constitution if voted to power again. Telling one lie a hundred times has become the birthright of the Congress which is desperate to come to power at any cost," he said.

Hitting out at Congress leaders who have amassed wealth and had intentionally kept the people below the poverty line since many decades to further their family and political interests, Suresh Kumar said that PM Narendra Modi has done nothing for his family but has done well to the nation. "For Congressmen, one family is their nation while for Modi the whole nation is one family. Re-electing Modi has become inevitable," he said.

Citing pro-people administration policies by Modi including Ujjwala scheme where 7 crore women have been given LPG connections freeing them from smoke-filled cooking environs, building 9 crore toilets, providing electricity to 18,000 houses in just 900 days, Suresh Kumar said that the Modi government has achieved what the 10-year UPA government could not even think of achieving.

"Modi gave supreme powers to the Defence Forces to strike at the enemy nation after the Pulwama terrorist strike. The UPA government never gave a chance to the Defence Forces to counter Pakistan. And when our Air Force bombed the terror camps inside Pakistan, they are asking for proof," he said.

Suresh Kumar questioned, "Can you imagine people like Rahul Gandhi, Mamata Banerjee and Mayawati sitting on Prime Minister's chair? If Modi did not become the Prime Minister again, India will go back to 50 years and the present world ranking of 5 which was 11 earlier will sink," he said and appealed voters to re-elect Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, thereby strengthening Modi's hands.

"In 2014, Narendra Modi was appealing voters to elect him and in 2019, people are canvassing for Modi. That's the change Modi has brought and he must be re-elected," he added. Expressing confidence about the BJP coming to power in the Centre again, he said, "The BJP will win more than 22 seats in Karnataka. There is Narendra Modi's wave across the State and we will win the highest number of seats."

Former Minister attacks HDK for forgetting that he is a CM and being only Nikhil's father

Mysuru, Apr.5 (RK&NNN)- Taking strong exception to the functioning style of Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) during this elections, former Minister and BJP State Spokesperson S. Suresh Kumar charged that the CM is so involved with his son's election in Mandya Lok Sabha that he has forgotten that he is the Chief Minister of the State.

Addressing media persons after seeking votes for BJP candidate Pratap Simha with advocates at the City Court Complex here yesterday, he said that the Chief Minister has disappeared from the State. As Nikhil Kumaraswamy's father he is seen only in the election campaign for his son but has forgotten his duties as CM even though the State is facing several problems.

Even though JD(S) has secular in its name, it is practising caste politics and hence we have to struggle to find the meaning of secular. The way independent candidate Sumalatha is being attacked by the leaders of JD(S) and the language used against her, does not bring any credit to the party claiming secular credentials, he condemned.

Stating that it was not correct to say that when cinema stars are with them (JD-S) then they are twin bullocks and if they are with others then the same bullocks become thieves, he said that the JD(S) leaders should learn to respect everyone.

However, CM HDK has forgotten his responsibilities. The lack of understanding between Congress and JD(S) will benefit BJP. The State Government's Coordination Committee Chairman Siddharamaiah has failed to bring the coalition partners together, he said attacking Siddharamaiah. "The work that Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has done and the welfare schemes that PM Modi has given to the people will work in the party's favour and a minimum of 22 seats out of 28 will be won by the party candidates. People are in favour of PM Modi," he said.

Bairstow, bowlers excel as Sunrisers score comfortable win over Delhi

New Delhi, Apr. 5- A combined bowling performance, followed by a blistering knock from Jonny Bairstow helped Sunrisers Hyderabad beat Delhi Capitals by five wickets on a sluggish track at the Feroz Shah Kotla on Thursday. With three points under their bag, Hyderabad now sits at top of the table on the basis of superior NRR.

Asked to bat, Delhi batsmen struggled big time against Hyderabad's quality bowling on a pitch that wasn't easy to bat on. Shreyas Iyer and Axar Patel tried their best but all Delhi could manage in their 20 overs were 129 runs, at the expense of eight wickets.

SRH player Jonny Bairstow plays a shot against DC.

In reply, Bairstow smacked 48 in just 28 deliveries, studded with nine fours and a six, to give Hyderabad a solid platform. The visiting team then lost wickets in clusters but lack of runs meant Delhi could never challenge Hyderabad, who finished on 131 for 5 in 18.3 overs.

Earlier, Prithvi Shaw (11) started the proceedings with a boundary through the cover region but it didn't take much time for Bhuvneshwar Kumar to get his line and length right. The right-arm seamer, who has struggled in the last couple of games, knocked over Shaw with a traditional off-cutter, picking up his first wicket of the season.

Both Bhuvneshwar and Mohammad Nabi kept Shikhar Dhawan and Shreyas Iyer quiet for the first four overs, giving them nothing to capitalise on. Iyer broke the shackles by lofting Siddarth Kaul for a maximum over long on before Dhawan managed to sweep Nabi for his first boundary. The willy off-spinner, however, forced Dhawan to play a similar shot and had him caught at short fine leg. The left-handed opener looked far from his best and could only manage 12 runs.

Having been reduced to 36 for 2 at the end of six overs, Delhi needed some stability, something you don't associate Rishabh Pant with. The left-handed dasher waited for a couple of deliveries before throwing his bat off Nabi's bowling, only to offer a simple catch to the long-off fielder. While Iyer was operating smartly from one end, Delhi kept losing wickets from other end.

There was hardly any contribution from Rahul Tewatia (5) and Colin Ingram (5) as Delhi lost their five wickets with just 75 runs on the board. Iyer found the fence a couple of times but the moment he tried to up the ante, the Delhi skipper was knocked over by Rashid Khan's googly. Iyer hit three fours and a six in his 41-ball 43 but couldn't take Delhi close to 150-run mark.

The home side needed a couple of big blows to get to a respectable total and that's when Axar stepped in. The left-hander first slammed Bhuvneshwar for a four over extra cover in the last ball of the penultimate over before smoking Siddarth Kaul for two sixes in the final over. Axar managed 23 in 13 balls.

Iyer started with Sandeep Lamichhane and Axar and the two spinners kept David Warner and Bairstow in check for the first two overs. Having got his eye in, Bairstow opened his shoulders in the next over and hammered Lamichhane for a 6 and 4 to get things going. The wicketkeeper-batsman from England looked like he was batting on a different surface and didn't spare any Delhi bowler during his stay in the middle. Bairstow managed four boundaries off Morris' single over and then greeted Kagiso Rabada with three more. The 29-year-old didn't allow any bowler to settle in and played his shots all around the park.

The visiting side were going over 10 runs per over till the sixth over before Tewatia pinned Bairstow right in front of the stumps, denying him a well-deserved half-century. This is the first time Warner and Bairstow haven't managed a 100-run stand in this season. Once Bairstow departed, Warner tried to open up but up ended up hitting one straight to the mid-off fielder, perishing for 18-ball 10.

Hyderabad were in complete control of the match and all Vijay Shankar and Manish Pandey had to do was kept the scoreboard moving with strike rotation. The two did well for a while before Pandey was caught at deep square leg for 10 in Ishant Sharma's bowling. Vijay too failed to complete the job, falling to Axar for 16. Bairstow was the Man of the Match.

Ugadi festival: City Police issues instructions to public

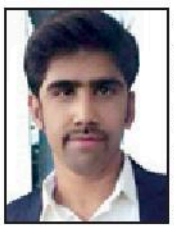
Mysuru, Apr. 5 (KS) - With Chandramana Ugadi being celebrated tomorrow, the Mysuru City Police, in a bid to maintain the law and order situation in city have issued instructions to the public for peaceful celebration of the festival.

The Police, who have banned gambling of all sorts in public places, have warned mischief mongers to refrain from eve teasing, drinking and creating problems in public.

The Cops have asked women folks not to openly display gold ornaments they are wearing while visiting temples besides asking the public to be beware of pick pocketers and chain snatchers at markets and other public places. Function organisers should take prior permission from CESC to draw power and not to draw electricity directly from electric poles, organisers of processions should deploy their personnel at vantage points besides taking precautions to prevent any untoward incidents by contacting the jurisdictional Police Station and taking prior permission from them before organising functions and not to create religious disharmony while passing in front of Churches, Mosques and other religious places of worship. The Police have asked the public to inform the Police Control Room if they come across unidentified persons and suspicious materials.

The Public are urged to inform illegal activities by calling Ph: 100 or 0821-2418339, according to a press release from the Public Relations Officer, City Police Commissioner's Office, Mysuru.

City youth meets watery grave at Nanjangud



Deceased Vinod

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RK&KS) - A 33-year-old youth from city, who had been to Nanjangud along with five others yesterday, was drowned after he was caught in the slush of the river and unable to come out.

The deceased youth is Vinod, a resident of K.G. Koppal and an employee of SVG's Placement Centre in city.

Vinod, along with Vishwanath Seshachala, Managing Trustee of SVG's Vishwaprajna PU College on Dattagalli Ring Road, Shruthi Seshachala, Mohan Kumar Shastri, Dean of SVG's Vishwaprajna PU College, Kavitha and one more person left Mysuru at about 3 pm yesterday to visit a Jain temple near Nanjangud on the occasion of Vishwanath's birthday. But they stopped near the bridge before Nanjangud and Vinod and Mohan Kumar ventured into the water for a swim. It is learnt that both Mohan and Vinod did not swimming.

Meanwhile, Vinod who ventured a little further was caught in the slush and was struggling to free himself but in vain and was reportedly drowned. Mohan, who tried to rescue Vinod, was also caught in the slush, but was saved by Vishwanath who threw his belt and Shruthi's veil thus pulling Mohan to safety.

Meanwhile, Nanjangud Rural Police Inspector Puneeth and staff, who rushed to the spot, fished out the body of Vinod, conducted mahazar and shifted the body to Nanjangud General Hospital mortuary, where post-mortem was conducted yesterday and the body was handed over to his family members. A case has been registered at Nanjangud Rural Police Station in this regard.

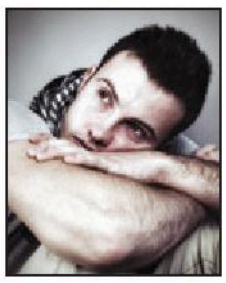
WORD OF THE DAY

Fantod

Pronunciation: FAN-tahd



Meaning: A state of extreme nervousness or restlessness.

Origin: "You have got strong symptoms of the fantods; your skin is so tight you can't shut your eyes without opening your mouth." Thus, American author Charles Frederick Briggs provides us with an early recorded use of fantods in 1839. Mark Twain used the word to refer to uneasiness or restlessness as shown by nervous movements—also known as the fidgets—in Huckleberry Finn: "They were all nice pictures, I reckon, but I didn't somehow seem to take to them, because ... they always give me the fantods." David Foster Wallace later used "the howling fantods," a favorite phrase of his mother, in Infinite Jest. The exact origin of fantod remains a mystery, but it may have arisen from English dialectal fantigue—a word (once used by Charles Dickens) that refers to a state of great tension or excitement and may be a blend of fantastic and fatigue.

Examples: The movie's graphic imagery gave me the fantods — I had to turn it off.

THE ODD WORD

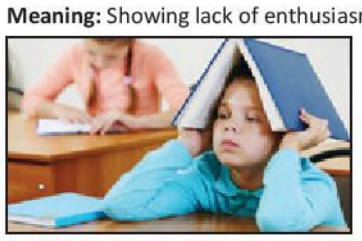
Fipple

Mouthpiece of a recorder

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Half-hearted

Meaning: Showing lack of enthusiasm or interest.



Origin: It might be thought that 'half-hearted' is a diminutive form of the more commonly used term 'whole-hearted'. Both are of English origin. 'Whole-hearted' first saw the light of day in the 19th century, while 'half-hearted' is medieval. 'Half-hearted' is a derivative of the slightly earlier 'faint-hearted'. Both are of English origin.

The metaphorical concept of 'heart' is at the root of faint-hearted and half-hearted. To the medieval way of thinking, the heart was the source of a person's being and the belief of the time was that the physical state of one's heart controlled one's demeanour. The later term 'whole-hearted' refers to a later meaning of 'heart', which was 'courage; manliness'.

The earliest examples of these phrases that we can find are: Half-hearted: In John Florio's Italian-English dictionary Queen Anna's New World of Words, 1611: "Semicorde, a coward, halfe-hearted".
